

How can I repay the Lord for all the good done for me? I will raise the cup of salvation and call on the name of the Lord. I will pay my vows to the Lord in the presence of all his people. Lord, I am your servant.

Dear Parishioners,

This weekend at all the Masses, we will have the annual Oblate appeal collection. Fr. Michael Murray, OSFS, who recently arrived here at St. John Neumann as one of our parochial vicar's, will give the homily at all the Masses and address the appeal. The Oblates are truly blessed by the consistent generosity of the parishioners of St. John Neumann. Due to the generosity of the faithful at so many of the apostolates where we serve, we can spread our mission of disseminating Salesian Spirituality as well as assisting our senior Oblates with care and dignity. This appeal also helps us our men in formation as they discern their call from God.

In addition to your financial generosity, I ask that you continue to pray for the Oblates, our ministries, and most especially for vocations. Please pray that young men discern embracing the Salesian way of life as an Oblate of St. Francis de Sales.

Again, in advance, on behalf of the Oblates, thank you for your generosity.

Live Jesus,

Fr. Joe

This Sunday's Readings—The Twenty-Sixth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Amos 6:1a, 4-7; Psalm 146:7, 8-9, 9-10 (1b); 1 Timothy 6:11-16; Luke 16:19-31

Lecturas de este domingo - Vigésimo sexto domingo del tiempo ordinario

Amós 6:1a, 4-7; Salmo 146:7, 8-9, 9-10 (1b); 1 Timoteo 6:11-16; Lucas 16:19-31

Today's readings remind us that we must continually be open to God's love and persevere in the love we owe God. St. Francis de Sales remarks: God calls both the rich and the poor to render service due to God. We see in today's Gospel that Lazarus, though suffering, perseveres in loving God faithfully and dies happily. But the rich man clung so strongly to his wealth that he made it his god.

Like the rich man, we can become obsessed with our possessions. As a result, we pray that God will do our will instead of praying that we do God's will. That is, we try to use God as a means to our ends, which is an illusion. God alone is our true end.

Avarice is not the only disordered inclination. There are others, such as selfishness, anger, pride, or envy. Yet, if we are open to God's love, neither our temperament nor our inclinations can hinder us from persevering in a holy way of life. However abundant as a water source may be, the water enters a garden in full flow only according to the size of the channel that brings the water into the garden. The Holy Spirit is like a fountain of living water that flows into our hearts to spread its grace therein if we consent. It is not grace that fails us; rather, it is we who fail grace. God's enlivening love is never wanting to us if we are willing to receive it.

After his conversion, St. Paul, who was naturally sharp, rude, and harsh, became fully open to God's grace. Taking hold of Paul's natural harshness, God's love made him so much more resolute in the good he undertook and invincible in all kinds of pains and labors. Is not God's love higher than nature? Persevere, and with God's help, you will arrange all your natural inclinations according to reason. Then you will become attentive to the love you owe God, and all your works will produce fruit that proceeds from God's Spirit, the wellspring of our spirit.

Next Sunday's Readings

Next weekend we celebrate The Twenty-Seventh Sunday in Ordinary Time. Please prepare for Mass by reflecting on these texts:

Habakkuk 1:2-3, 2:2-4 "When troubled times come...the task of the just is to live with integrity and thus to display their faith that the Lord is dependable..."

Psalms 95:1-2, 6-7, 8-9 (8) "If today you hear his voice, harden not your hearts."

2 Timothy 1:6-8, 13-14 "The main gift that Timothy (and every baptized person) received is the Holy Spirit. This is not a spineless or fainthearted spirit, but...a spirit of power."

Luke 17:5-10 "...Is the master grateful? i.e., does he thank his servant who did only what he was obliged to do? "...a resounding No! The master is not grateful."

(Workbook for Readers, Gospel Readers and Proclaimers of the Word 2022, LTP 2022)

Lecturas del próximo domingo

El próximo fin de semana celebramos el Vigésimo séptimo domingo del tiempo ordinario. Por favor, prepárense para la misa reflexionando sobre estos textos:

Habacuc 1:2-3, 2:2-4 "...Cuando llegan los tiempos difíciles "la tarea de los justos es vivir con integridad y mostrar así su fe en que el Señor es confiable..."

Salmo 95:1-2, 6-7, 8-9 (8) "Si hoy oís su voz, no endurezcáis vuestros corazones".

2 Timoteo 1:6-8, 13-14 "El principal don que recibió Timoteo (y todo bautizado) es el Espíritu Santo. Este no es un espíritu débil o pusilánime, sino... un espíritu de poder."

Lucas 17:5-10 "...¿Está agradecido el amo?", es decir, ¿agradece a su siervo que sólo hizo lo que estaba obligado a hacer? "...un rotundo ¡No! El amo no es agradecido".

This Weekend's Special Collection is for the Oblate's Annual Appeal

This weekend, September 24-25, the Second Collection benefits the Annual Oblates' Appeal. Your generosity will allow the Oblates of St. Francis de Sales to continue their 147-year-old mission of educating, mentoring, and shepherding Catholics worldwide. Your donation will help young men who are entering formation with the Oblates. It will help Oblate priests in parishes and schools worldwide and also help retired Oblates. From providing the means to afford textbooks for those in formation to providing a modern retirement home, including a nursing care facility for the Oblates when they retire. Let's show our love for the Oblates and all they have done for our parish! Please, prayerfully, consider a donation to this worthy and beloved order.

Saint Peter Claver Patron of Missionary Work Among All African Peoples

Born in the village of Verdu in the province of Lleida in Catalonia, Spain, in 1580, Pedro "Peter" Claver, as a student at the University of Barcelona, wrote in a notebook that he kept throughout his life, "I must dedicate myself to the service of God until death, on the understanding that I am like a slave."

At the age of 20, having completed his university studies, Claver entered the Society of Jesus. While at Palma, Mallorca he was studying philosophy, he befriended St. Alphonsus Rodriguez, who was known for his holiness and gift of prophecy. Brother Rodriguez, having received a message from God, predicted that Claver would spend his life servicing others in the colonies of New Spain and Rodriguez urged the young man to accept that calling.

Claver followed his urging, volunteering for the Spanish colonies, and found himself in 1610 in the port city of Cartagena. Cartagena was a hub for the slave trade through which tens of thousands of West Africans poured in yearly. During the next six years, Claver studied theology. He was deeply troubled by the harsh treatment and wretched conditions of the enslaved African men and women he observed.

Alonso de Sandoval, a Jesuit Priest, mentioned Peter Claver in his writings as one who had devoted himself to serving the enslaved people. Claver was a responsive and devoted follower, and in 1622 he signed his final profession document in Latin as he was ordained, Peter Claver servant of the Ethiopians (i.e., Africans) forever.

Claver made it his practice to meet the slave ships as soon as they entered the port. He would board the ship and move down into the holds to minister to those who had survived the miserable journey of many months under unacceptable conditions. As the slave traders corralled the enslaved people and moved them to the yards where buyers inspected them, Claver moved with them, providing medicine, food, bread, and lemons to the terrified captives. He was able to communicate basic information with the help of pictures and sometimes an interpreter.

When ships were not arriving with their human cargo, Claver would move about the country, giving spiritual consolation to the enslaved people as he visited the plantations. Church historians estimate that Claver baptized over 300,000 enslaved people. He also preached in the city to sailors and traders. He also saw those he had baptized and sought their humane treatment. Whenever possible, he would stay in the slave quarters. As a result of his continuous work, over 40 years, and his kind and accepting manner, the conditions of the enslaved people slowly improved. He became known as the Apostle of Cartagena.

Pope Leo XIII canonized Peter Claver in 1888 along with his Jesuit mentor, Alphonsus Rodriguez. In 1896 Pope Leo named Claver, the patron of missionary work among all African peoples. Today, the Apostleship of the Sea (AoS) carries on St. Peter Claver's mission. St. Peter Claver is also the inspiration for port chaplains and those who visit ships in the name of the Church through AoS.

The Knights of Peter Claver, Inc is the largest African-American Catholic fraternal organization in the United States. The Missionary Sisters of St. Peter Claver, founded by Blessed Mary Theresa Ledochowska in 1894, is a religious congregation of women serving the spiritual and social needs of the poor, particularly in Africa.

The Congress of the Republic of Colombia established September 9 as the Human Rights National Day in Claver's honor. September 9 is the feast day of St. Peter Claver.

The KofC Icon of St. Joseph will be on display. Joseph of Nazareth stands out as the model par excellence of Christian virtue, a brilliant example of obedience to God and trust in Divine Providence. While the Gospel has not preserved any of his words, his actions have resounded through the ages. St. Joseph's role as protector of families, guiding us through life's difficulties as Patron of the universal Church, has never been more clearly needed. Please join this special presentation on September 29 to learn more about our spiritual father, St. Joseph. The Knights will serve refreshments during the presentation.

TIEMPO DE LA CREACIÓN

Esta semana

30 de septiembre - Proyección gratuita del documental The Story of Plastic - En persona con refrescos y virtual. Ver detalles en la barra lateral. Subtítulos en español disponibles. Únase a la reunión de Zoom aquí: <https://bit.ly/3TpAaVW>.

Oct 2 - Bendición de las Mascotas a la 1:00pm después de la Misa de 11:30am. En la celebración de la fiesta de San Francisco de Asís, el Padre Don bendecirá nuestras mascotas. Reunirse cerca del asta de la bandera.

"Una ecología integral incluye tomarse tiempo para recuperar una serena armonía con la creación, reflexionando sobre nuestro estilo de vida y nuestros ideales, y contemplando al Creador que vive entre nosotros y nos rodea..." (LS #225)

El Ciclo de la Creación comienza el 1 de septiembre, Jornada Mundial de Oración por el Cuidado de la Creación, y continúa hasta el 4 de octubre, fiesta de San Francisco de Asís.

Viernes 30 de septiembre por la noche

Juntos, cultivemos un mundo con cero residuos. Acompáñanos en la proyección GRATUITA del documental Story Of Plastic. Esta película recorre la destructiva vida de los plásticos en tres continentes y arroja luz sobre un movimiento global que pide un cambio.

Refrescos a las 6:30pm
en el Auditorio Brown-McCarthy
Introducción a las 6:45pm por la compañera Alexandria Gillen, Especialista en Educación para el Programa de Desechos Marinos (NOAA, contratada a través de Lynker)
Audiencia virtual - Únase a la reunión de Zoom
aquí:
<https://bit.ly/3TpAaVW>
Película a las 7:00pm
(Compartiremos el enlace con la audiencia virtual)
Subtítulos en español disponibles
Q/A después de la película

Consejo ecológico - Haz una pausa antes de poner algo en tu cesta, ya sea física o virtual. Piensa con calma si es una necesidad o un deseo. Si se trata de un deseo, espere una semana antes de volver a comprarlo. Esta es una forma reflexiva de "reducir".

La Pastoral del Cuidado de la Casa Común promueve la visión de la encíclica Laudato Si' del Papa Francisco en nuestra parroquia y fuera de ella. Sitio web: <http://cfoch.weebly.com>. Correo electrónico: saintjn.cch@gmail.com.

¿Están tu estilo de vida y tus ideales en armonía con la naturaleza?
Contempla lo que el Creador te pide en este momento de la historia.
